Student Retention Project

Withdrawal rates and 'disengaged' students highlighted as areas of concern at cross-university workshop

Internal and external best practice for improving engagement, retention and progression is identified

Educational offer investigated to identify potential areas for improving engagement, retention and progression

Working groups established to focus on the different focus areas: engagement, retention and progression

Bespoke interventions and support developed and implemented to improve the above areas

Improved student experience