The Academic Regulations which are detailed in Section V: Regulations for Research Degrees and Higher Doctorates, and Section IV: General Information and Regulations of the Calendar, apply to and regulate the programme(s) listed above.

On occasion, programmes can be exempted from one or more of the clauses in the Regulations; one or more of the clauses can be varied; and programmes can impose additional requirements.

- Exemptions are characterised by the omission of the relevant clause.
- Variations are characterised by the replacement of the clause with alternative wording.
- Additions are characterised by requirements in addition to those detailed in the Academic regulations.

The programmes listed have approval from the Academic Quality and Standards Committee for the exemptions and/or variations and/or additions to the regulations noted below.

Exemptions:
The clause(s) listed below describe where an exemption to the Regulations exists:

None apply

Variations:
The clause(s) listed below describe where a variation to the Regulations exists:

Existing University regulation (including link)		Approved Variation
3.1 and 4.1	Progression, Determination and Classification of Results: Postgraduate Master's Programmes	To be able to progress onto the research phase, students will be required to achieve 60% or higher in at least six of the modules and not less than 50% in the remainder (60 ECTS/120 CATS).

Additional requirements:
The clause(s) listed below are in addition to the Regulations:

1. Students must attend 80% of each module. Those unable to meet this criterion will be asked to repeat the module(s) concerned.

These regulations should be read in conjunction with the programme specification.

Disclaimer:
As a research-led University, we undertake a continuous review of our programmes to ensure quality enhancement and to manage our resources. As a result, these regulations may be revised during a student's period of registration, however, any revision will be balanced against the requirement that the student should receive the educational service expected. Please read our _Disclaimer_ to see why, when and how changes may be made to a student's programme.
